

ABA's principal featured in local paper

Kim Fernández, one of ABA Architects' principals, was featured in a Tucson Business Edge article recently. Tucson Business Edge is a business section supplement to the Tucson Citizen.

In the article, the newspaper profiled “four of Tucson’s most experienced and successful businesswomen to find out their secret for success and how they got past the ‘honeys’ and the ‘dears’ to rise to their levels of leadership.”

Please click here for the complete article.