

ABA Architects hires new lead designer

ABA Architects welcomes a new lead design architect in Paul Edwards. He has over 22 years of experience in the field of architectural design. Edwards has served in the role of primary architect on various projects from private residences to large-scale commercial projects. He is adept at working through sketches, renderings, 3D computer imaging, and graphics.

Edwards' work has been featured in Designer's West, Architectural Living, and Tucson Lifestyle. According to Edwards, his goal is to "create buildings that express personality by using timeless forms and materials that are brought to life with light." Currently, he is overseeing the design development for Pimeria Alta, an accommodation school for middle school and high school students in Santa Cruz County. He earned his bachelor's degree in architecture from the University of Arizona.

ABA Architects was founded in 1977 and specializes in institutional and educational projects. The firm can be reached at (520) 881-4512.
